

New York, April 29, 1862.

Dear Garrison,

84 I send a note just received from John W. Hutchinson. I have replied by telegraph in these words: "Yes—sing a donation to the cause, by all means, if you can afford to." I did not feel at liberty to involve the Society in expense for their music, though I felt sure that if they would volunteer, they would be welcome.

I have nothing yet from Mr. Aaron. I may hear in time to report before closing this. I fear, as he is a school-teacher, he will not be able to come.

I have not received, as I hoped, this morning, your list of speakers, &c. I trust it will come to-morrow morning, for it ought to go into the Standard, and then I need it in order to advertise seasonably in the daily papers.

We are in the confusion and dist of moving, and I am doing my work this week under great disadvantages. You will find us, when you come, at the new place.

I trust that nothing will occur to hinder you in the preparation of the resolutions (or statement) this week. Pray don't fail

if sending it to me, complete,
by the mail of Sunday night
at farthest.

Yours, faithfully,

Oliver Johnson

Don't forget to insert the Call for our Yearly Meeting.

4 p.m. The expected letter from Mr. Spoon has not come.
